Directions: Words or phrases are omitted from the following passage, and they are numbered 86 to 100. With reference to the numbers in the passage choose (1), (2), (3), or (4) that best completes each blank. Then, on your answer sheet, find the number of the item and mark your answer.

What better way to relax than by taking a holiday? The problem is that planning and preparing for a holiday can cause anxiety. ...(86)... a lot of people are now, turning to cruises. This form of holiday is becoming more popular as people realize that it can take the stress ...(87)... holidays. So why are cruises so great?

Firstly, they are great ...(88)... . Everything ...(89)... in the one price you pay up front, from your food, your evening entertainment, and your day trips on shore. In addition, the food is delicious and ...(90)... varied than you might think. Modern ...(91)... usually have a number of restaurants on board which ...(92)... a range of tastes, from pizza and curry to traditional European cooking. ...(93)..., many people still have negative images of cruising. They think it is just for elderly people who like casinos and sitting in the sun. They also worry about being ...(94)... with boring people at the dinner table and not being able to ...(95)... . There are also stories about the dangers on board, such as people falling into the water from ships or about viruses by poor kitchen standards ...(96)... .

In general, though, I believe this ...(97)... of cruising is a false one, kept alive by the fact that such a small percentage of the population ...(98)... on a cruise ...(99)... the high cost of most cruises does mean they are attractive to ...(100)... retired people, cruises are starting to appeal to more and more ordinary young people. They are actually a good option for families as there are children's clubs and other entertainment on board, so you, the parents, get to spend some time alone together.
